Easton's CLU Drops Neutrality In Community Chest Campaign

Central Group Here Aware Of New Attitude

EASTON'S CENTRAL Labor Union dropped off the fence Saturday and urged its members to support the Community Chest drive in that city.

The Easton CLU had previously adopted a "neutral" stand on its local Chest campaign. The organization gave as its reason for neutrality its desire to support a member union in its differences with the Monroe County YMCA.

John Farley, head of the East Stroudsburg CLU, said last night that he had been contacted last week by an Easton CLU official and that the Easton representative informed him that his organization was contemplating dropping its
